Here is what you need:	Here is what you do
250g (8 oz) sultanas	Mix together all the fruits and nuts and sprinkle
250 g (8 oz) chopped raisins	with the sherry or brandy. Cover and leave for
250 g (8 oz) currants	at least one hour, but preferably overnight.
125 g (4 oz) chopped mixed peel
90 g (3oz) chopped red glace cherries	Sift together the flours and spices. Cream
90 g (3oz) chopped blanched almonds	together the butter and sugar with the
250 g (8 oz) plain flour	essences.
60 g (2 oz) self-raising flour
1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg	Add the eggs one at a time, beating well after
1/2 teaspoon ground ginger	each addition, and then alternately add the
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves	fruit and flour mixtures. Mix thoroughly. The
250g (8 oz) butter	mixture should be stiff enough to support with
250g (8 oz) soft brown sugar	a wooden spoon.
½ teaspoon lemon essence OR
finely grated lemon rind	Place the mixture into a prepared 20cm (8")
½ teaspoon almond essence	square tin and bake in a slow oven
½ teaspoon vanilla essence	for approximately 3 1/2-4 hours. Allow the
4 large eggs	cake to cool in the tin
1/3 cup sherry or brandy

	on the size it is suggested the raisins be

This year's theme is "Gone Fishing," and finding a cake that fits this theme and offers a unique twist has been quite challenging. While both the Rock Cake and the Havva Cake share similarities, there are notable differences. The Rock Cake, a single-serve scone-sized cake, contains eggs and less sugar, while the Havva Cake, an actual cake, has no eggs and includes more sugar.

Our first cake is a Rock Cake, a small single served cake so named after its similar appearance to a rock, but don't let that put you off. Despite their appearance, these simple rock cakes are wonderfully crumbly and sweet. Remember, these do not need to be smooth, neat and tidy, rough them up to achieve the rough rocky cracks.

Our second cake is a Havva Cake, despite the unattractive name this cake has been given, this lightly fruited bake is not 'heavy' as the name would suggest. The bake falls somewhere between a sweet scone and a light egg-free fruit cake. This cake is traditionally made by Cornish fisherman's wives to welcome their husband's home from a successful fishing trip. Its really not a heavy cake, but neither is it light and spongy. It's a simple bake with no eggs. The main thing that distinguishes this bake from similar ones across the country is a criss cross pattern marked on the top of the cake to represent a fishing net. All you need to do is look up Cornish Hevva Cake. Good Luck

Class 300 – Rock Cake - (make 2 single serve cakes)

Class 301 – Cornish Havva Cake (sometimes known as Heavy Cake)

School Sculpture/Display Competition

Gone Fishing

GONE FISHING - This year the Theme for the Pavilion is Gone Fishing. We have chosen this Theme to coincide with the Fishing Trawlers and Co-op that was once a big part of Brunswick Heads. The area now known as Brunswick Heads was the territory of the Arakwal Bumberlin people (Arakwal Country extends from Seven Mile Beach south of Broken Head to the Brunswick River up north) and it was a place of significance and a steady source of food including yugoori (pipis) and jullum (fish).

We invite you to tell/display your story of what you know about Fishing in Brunswick Heads or our local community.
